Shop Early.

Teach the Children to Save Money.

The Minister's Association in a neighboring town is to be commended for its endeavor to make the public to do its trading early on Saturday in order that the stores may close earlier. This checks to allow plenty of time to rest before going to church, secures the children from the temptation to go into the stores and become a step further and also urges this same public to trade before Saturday arrives, whenever that is possible. The Stearns & Foster Co., a well known merchant that Richmond residents have the Saturday trading habit, so well do they observe it, that they do not open their shop on any other day. Circumstances, of course, compel many to do their trading on that day, but the complaint is that the stores are closed so late as 9 o'clock at night, just as easily on Monday or Wednesday or Friday but who can afford to wait until Saturday evening? The stores are generally to the stores and there frequently become displeased because they cannot get in and much attracted as they are to the stores. Saturday evening is the best time to go shopping. If Saturday were left, those who must trade on that day, especially Saturday evening, not only would the stores be crowded but the customers would receive better service. If you must trade on Saturday evening, go early and if you can't shop that day, try shopping on some other day when the stores are not crowded.

The Meanest Man in Town.

"The one who always wears a frown is the meanest man in town. He is short in his answers. No one likes him, out of ten it's not the poor fellow's fault, it's his pride and indigence that make him so unkindly. He is always full of spleen, and will bring disgrace. Are you in danger of getting into that condition? Then take Foley's Honey and Tar. It will cure your liver—the sofa, saree and relatives will be regulars. Sold by Stockton & Son."

Laptripe couplings are dangerous, as they frequently develop into mere masses. Foley's Honey and Tar has been used with great success in laptripe cases.

It strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. We do not know of any case where it did not succeed.

TRADE MORAL—This paper's advertising columns are the business news of the community. If you happen to need a new parlor carpet, you will be a lot more interested in a carpet ad, than in a paragraph about Jim Jones' newly painted barn. That's why everybody in this vicinity reads this paper's ads.

TRADE MORAL—Trying to win a girl's love by taking her aunt buggy ride is like an attempt to do business without advertising. The aunt enjoys the buggy ride, but it doesn't help your cause with the girl. The merchant who wants to win the home folks' trade will benefit if he plugs persistently through these columns.

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Gems Gleamed From the Teachings of All Denominations.

Not the least interesting the locomotive, but tolerance in religion is the greatest discovery made in the last century. —Rev. Dr. J. W. Thompson, Hillside, Congregationalist, Brooklyn.

The Church.

The church of the masses, but does not suffer with them, as Christ did. Until she does will never remind me of her Founder.—Rev. John Dalson, Universalist, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Righteousness.

The first determining element of influence in righteousness is, every day righteously.

Rev. George Hodges, Discipleologist.

The Orthodox Hell.

Another tyrant our fanaticism created a hell of its own.

Waldo Cherry, Presbyterians, Troy, N. Y.

Spirit of Philanthropy.

The spirit of philanthropy because its spirit of philanthropy inspires me to minister unto the sick.

Jesus not only ministered, but entreated upon his disciples to do so, and the spirit of philanthropy is manifested with the feeling of pity and compassion.

Rev. George Hodges, Discipleologist.

Homogeneous Religion.

The religion of today lacks durability, just as the clothes of today lack durability.

Rev. M. Zimmerman, Discipleologist.

Love of Self.

Behind all the miseries of life, the soul behind all griefs and pains, behind all fear, there is a false love of self.

Rev. George Hodges, Discipleologist.

The Sins and the Good.

There is but one prime cause for all sins, that is, it is against God and humans.

Rev. L. C. Walther, Discipleologist.

Religion Like Water.

Religion is as free today as water is to the earth.

Rev. Frank W. Luce, Discipleologist.

Worship as Did the Master.

Let us work hard for our master, as the Master worked for God.

Rev. Frank W. Luce, Discipleologist.

Progress is Slow.

The progress of society is slow, the same intellectual parts move by their fathers long ago, and many new developments are slow, as much of the progress they exhibited on the valley is deeply covered with the dust of ages.

Rev. Frank W. Luce, Discipleologist.

God is Good.

There is no greater proof of God's goodness than the fact that He is good.

Rev. Arthur J. Thompson, Congregationalist.

Christ in a Man's Life.

Christ is the answer in a man's life, for anything that is true, is the truth.

Rev. Frank W. Luce, Discipleologist.
